

NEWS

WELLINGTON ROTARY JOINS THE LORD'S PLACE FOR OUTDOOR FUN

"A Day of Under the Big Top" was held last Saturday at the Lord's Place Family Campus in West Palm Beach. Presented by the Wellington Rotary Club and County Commissioner Jess Santamaria, the event offered a day of fun for Lord's Place residents, who were treated to a barbecue lunch, music by DJ Tony "the Tiger" Armour, children's entertainment by Dr. Sunshine and more. For more information about programs for the homeless offered by the Lord's Place, call (561) 494-0125 or visit www.thelordsplace.org.

PHOTOS BY DENISE FLEISCHMAN/TOWN-CRIER

Ben and William Boynton hand out prizes.

Brooke and David Unversaw of Republic Services with children Alexander and Liliana.

Jennifer Nilsson with Chase and Dorey Barbre with Danté.

Wellington Rotarians gather for a group photo.

Aaron Menitoff and Julie Larson of Aaron's Catering cook up burgers and hot dogs.

Karen Hardin and DJ Tony the Tiger do the bump.