

PRESS RELEASE

Kevin R. Sullivan – 20 years as a financial advisor

Kevin Sullivan is celebrating 20 years as a financial advisor. He started in the financial services industry October 30, 1989 with The Prudential as a Registered Representative. His career continued by working with McDonald Investments, a division of KeyCorp, obtaining numerous awards for sales and leadership.

At Bank of America, his career led him to win Financial Advisor of the Year in 2005, Partner of the Year in 2006 based on his practice management and leadership skills. He was the Assistant Market Director for Maine and New Hampshire as well.

In March of 2007, he opened his practice at 112 Clinton Ave. in Winslow, Sullivan Wealth Management, LLC, an independent company, and is affiliated with and securities are offered through, Raymond James Financial Services, Inc. Kevin is a Registered Principal, holding the Series 24 license.

Kevin also has his Series 7, Series 65, Series 63, Life and Health licenses and in 2007, he obtained the Certified Divorce Financial Analyst Designation (CDFA). His entire career has been here in Central Maine and he says he feels “very blessed to be working with such great people.” He says that “taking care of people” is the fundamental cornerstone of his business and wishes to thank all his clients for a great 20 years! Kevin can be reached at (207) 512-2641 or www.sullivanwealthmanagement.com .

