

It's the Season to Set Aside Mundane Concerns

It's very pleasant at this time of year to be able to take a few days – for some of us, perhaps, just a few hours – to set aside financial and other worries in favor of focusing on the happiness and enjoyment that come from getting together with loved ones to enjoy the holidays. The ability to reflect on all of the good things going on in our lives can help put everything else in its true perspective.

Our office, along with the financial markets, will be closed on December 25 and January 1. You can, of course, access your account(s) using Raymond James Investor Access at any time, year-round.

We hope the holidays will be a happy time for you and your family and friends. May the joy of the season carry you along as you get ready to celebrate the New Year.

Sincerely,

Mark Thompson, CFP
