This Month:

Summer is a time for vacations and fun. Keeping that notion, this month we share some of our best summer photos...yeah it's also a sign we have hit a writing dry spell, but we also know a picture is worth a 1000 words! Enjoy:

Bob Stanton (registered principal):

June is here and we are still “working on the yard” ... can’t complain cause Joyce and I have mostly enjoyed the whole project (apparently I am a bit of an know-it-all control freak...right, no way). We will have a BBQ soon and I will share a photo next time...happy summer everyone.

Ron Castleton (registered principal):

After years of waiting, we are finally committing to re-doing our landscape. It is a big job that involves both front and back yards. If this is like other home-improvement projects I’ve suffered through, there are likely a whole lot of surprises before we are through.... I will keep you updated.

Amy Negri (administrative assistant):

June already?! I’m glad we’re halfway through this “June Gloom”, man it makes me lazy. Ryan and I have a busy summer planned; weddings, birthdays, family visiting. I’m looking forward to all of it!

Kevin Kraus (Business Development):

Football is finally finished, Knute is home from college, it's light out until past 8pm ...summer time! Knute leaves next week for 12 days of lacrosse in Amsterdam and Berlin. He returns for 2 days and then he's off to Vail for 5 more days of lacrosse. I hope to get to Huntington Beach myself!

This month “Financial Thought”: One more summer photo!
