Item 1D

ADVISORY SERVICES AND FEES

The David J. Yvars Group, Inc. (DJY or the Firm) is an investment adviser, and provides investment advisory services as well as financial planning services to individuals, pension and profit sharing plans, trusts, estates and corporations, as described below.

Investment Advisory Services

DJY generally advises portfolios on a discretionary basis, although some portfolios may be non-discretionary. Through personal interviews, DJY gathers information about client assets, liabilities, investment goals, objectives and time horizon. DJY's creates customized, structured portfolios, tailored to each client's individual risk tolerance. Asset allocation mix may fluctuate and vary depending on DJY's recommendations and market conditions.

DJY may provide a detailed financial plan consistent with a client's financial status, investment objectives and constraints, risk tolerance and tax status. The financial plan may include the following areas of concern: personal, retirement, investments, tax and cash flow, and death and disability. The financial plan may also include generic recommendations as to general types of investment products or specific securities that may be appropriate for the client to purchase given his or her financial situation and objectives.

Fees for Investment Advisory Services

For portfolio advisory services, the client will pay the annualized advisory fees described below.

Portfolio Value	Equity/Balanced	Fixed Income
First $500,000	3.00%	1.25%
Next $500,000	2.20%	1.10%
Next $4,000,000	1.60%	1.00%
Above $5,000,000	1.40%	0.80%

The advisory fee will be due and payable quarterly in advance on the market value of the account assets including cash under management as of the close of business on the last business day of the preceding quarter. The advisory fee will be payable when the account is established, pro-rated for the first partial quarter.

Financial Planning

DJY offers financial planning services to clients for which it provides Investment Advisory Services. DJY generally does not charge a separate fee for financial planning services.

Financial planning services may include a review of all aspects of a client's current financial situation, including the following components: cash management, risk management, insurance, education funding, goal setting, retirement planning, estate and charitable giving planning, tax planning, and capital needs planning. DJY may meet with the client to review risk tolerance, financial goals and objectives, and time horizons and may prepare a written financial plan.

I. Full name of applicant exactly as stated in Item 1A of Part I of Form ADV: The David J. Yvars Group, Inc.		IRS Empl. Ident. No.: 20-3936483
Item of Form (identify)	Answer

Financial planning services are based on the client's financial situation at the time and are based on financial information disclosed by the client to DJY. Certain assumptions may be made with respect to interest and inflation rates and use of past trends and performance of the market and economy. DJY does not offer any guarantees or promises that client's financial goals and objectives will be met. Clients should notify DJY promptly of any changes to the client's financial goals, objectives or financial situation as such changes may require a review of the plan and changes to recommendations.

General Information on Fees

DJY's advisory fees may be negotiable based on various criteria, including, but not limited to the size of the aggregate related party portfolio size and pre-existing relationships with clients. Compensation will ultimately be based on the time involved, the degree of responsibility assumed, complexity of the engagement, special skills needed to solve problems, the application of experience and knowledge of the client's situation.

DJY may absorb, at its discretion, some or all of the transaction fees (including postage) related to a client portfolio.

Advisory fees are not charged based on the capital gains or the capital appreciation of any funds or any part of any funds of any client in a manner prohibited by the Investment Advisers Act of 1940 (Advisors Act).

Advisory fees charged by DJY are separate and distinct from advisory fees and expenses charged by mutual funds in which client assets may be invested. A complete description of these fees and expenses may be found in each mutual fund prospectus.

In addition to DJY advisory fees, clients may also incur certain charges imposed by third-parties which may include the following: mutual fund or money market 12b-1 and sub transfer fees; fund or money market management fees and administrative expenses; mutual fund transaction fees; certain deferred sales charges on previously purchased mutual funds transferred into the portfolio; IRA and qualified retirement plan fees and other charges required by law; and trade transaction fees or ticket fees, and other fees levied by brokers or custodians.

Apart from the personal client service provided directly by DJY, services identical to DJY's may be provided by other investment advisers for advisory fees that may be greater than or less than the advisory fees charged by DJY.

Proxy Voting

DJY acts as a discretionary investment adviser for various clients, including clients governed by the Employee Retirement Income Security Act of 1974 (ERISA).

Upon execution of the Client Agreement, the client elects to:

- Assign the responsibility for voting all proxies solicited by issuers of securities held in the Portfolio to DJY, or
- Retain the responsibility for voting all proxies solicited by issuers of securities held in the Portfolio. Under this option, DJY neither votes proxies for clients, nor provide advice to clients about how to vote proxies. The custodian sends proxies directly to clients for voting.

DJY does not render advice to or take any actions on behalf of clients with respect to any legal proceedings, including bankruptcies and shareholder litigation.

When the responsibility to vote proxies has been assigned to DJY, the firm's utmost concern is that all decisions be made solely in the best interest of the client (and for ERISA accounts, plan beneficiaries and participants, in accordance with the letter and spirit of ERISA). DJY will act in a prudent and diligent manner intended to enhance the economic value of the assets of the client's portfolio.

The Chief Compliance Officer is ultimately responsible for ensuring that all proxies received by DJY are voted in a timely manner and in a manner consistent with DJY's determination of the client's best interests. Although many proxy proposals can be voted in accordance with DJY's established guidelines, DJY recognizes that some proposals require special consideration, which may dictate that DJY makes an exception to the guidelines.

Information

DJY will provide clients with information about how proxies were voted upon written request to Mr. Yvars at 914.741.9700.

Custody

The client agreement authorizes DJY to deduct advisory fees directly from the client's portfolio at the custodian. With the exception of the ability to debit client portfolio for advisory fees, DJY does not and will not have custody of clients' funds or securities. Client assets shall be held in the custody of a bank, trust company or brokerage firm agreed upon by the client and DJY.

DJY sends information to the custodian regarding the advisory fee. The custodian sends a statement to the client, at least quarterly, indicating all amounts disbursed from the portfolio including the amount of advisory fees paid directly to DJY.

Termination

A client agreement may be canceled at any time by either party, for any reason upon written notice. Upon termination of any portfolio, any earned, unpaid fees will be due and payable.

The client may terminate any agreement with DJY without penalty (full refund or no fees due) within 5 business days of signing the Agreement if DJY's ADV Part II was not delivered at least 48 hours prior to engagement. If termination is made after five business days, fees are refundable for any portion of

Privacy of Client Information

DJY provides a Privacy Notice to each client at the time of engaging DJY's services, and annually thereafter. The Privacy Notice discloses the type of information DJY collects regarding a client, any third party DJY may share information with and safeguards over client privacy.

Clients can obtain a copy of DJY's Privacy Notice by contacting Mr. Yvars at 914.741.9700.

Item 5

EDUCATIONAL AND BUSINESS STANDARDS

DJY requires that each investment adviser representative have a college degree and/or equivalent professional experience. Individuals must be properly licensed and registered, unless exempted, in states in which such individuals are conducting investment advisory business. Prior related business experience is also a consideration in determining the qualifications of advisor personnel.

Trading. The Code contains provisions reasonably necessary to deter misconduct and conflicts of interest and to detect any violation. The Code's key provisions include:

- Statement of General Principles
- Policy on Personal Securities Transactions
- Code of Conduct

Any individual not in compliance with the Code of Ethics may be subject to termination.

Clients and prospective clients can obtain a copy of DJY's Code of Ethics by contacting Mr. Yvars at 914.741.9700.

Item 10

CONDITIONS FOR MANAGING ACCOUNTS

The minimum portfolio size is $500,000. Waivers or exceptions may be granted at the exclusive discretion of Mr. Yvars.

Item 11A

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS (REVIEWS)

The day-to-day supervision of the portfolios is the responsibility of Mr. Yvars, President. Each investment portfolio is reviewed at least quarterly. Financial planning portfolios are reviewed at least annually. Factors that may trigger more frequent reviews include material market events or changes in a client's personal situation. In addition, each client portfolio is reviewed periodically for compliance with the investment policies, suitability of investments and client investment objectives. Other factors that would trigger a more frequent review are material market events or changes in a client's personal situation.

Mr. Yvars is responsible for overseeing all reviews.

Item 11B

REVIEW OF ACCOUNTS (REPORTS)

Clients receive monthly statements and periodic confirmations from their broker/dealers, mutual fund companies and/or custodians, as applicable.

Item 12A (1) and (2)

INVESTMENT OR BROKERAGE DISCRETION

DJY generally has the authority to act on a discretionary basis on behalf of clients. When such authority exists between the client and DJY, DJY may choose both the amount and type of publicly traded securities to be bought to satisfy portfolio objectives. This is the case with most of DJY's clients. Additionally, DJY accepts any reasonable limitation or restriction to such authority on the portfolio placed by the client. All limitations and restrictions placed on the portfolio must be presented to DJY in writing.

Brokerage Selection and Commissions

Clients are free to select any broker they wish, and are so informed. DJY generally recommends Raymond James Financial Services (RJFS); however, the client will ultimately be responsible for selection of the financial institution. The primary factors considered in DJY's decision to recommend RJFS include financial strength and the quality of the products and services it offers to clients. Specific products and services include quality execution services, consolidated reporting of all assets and Internet access to client portfolios. Additionally, DJY receives client information electronically in order to facilitate its review of client portfolios.

When a client selects RJFS, commission rates will be the lowest rate available to DJY based on its volume of activity with RJFS; however, commissions may be charged which are higher or lower than commission rates at these firms other broker/dealers. DJY monitors RJFS's best execution policies on a regular basis to ensure clients continue to receive high quality executions. DJY and its principals and advisor representatives do not share in any of the commissions, transaction fees or service fees that may be received by RJFS.

A client may select a broker other than RJFS if, for example, the client will be receiving investment advisory consulting services from such Specified Broker. The client may direct DJY to effect all transactions for the client's portfolio through a Specified Broker; DJY does not negotiate brokerage commissions with respect to transactions executed by the Specified Broker for the client's portfolio.

The client and the Specified Broker agree on the commission rate that the Specified Broker will charge for transactions effected for the amount. As a result, and depending upon:

1. The client's arrangement with the Specified Broker,
2. Such factors as the number of securities, instruments or obligations being bought or sold for the client, whether round or odd lots are being acquired for the client and the market for the security, instrument or obligation, and
3. The fact that the client will be foregoing any benefit from savings on execution costs that DJY could obtain for its clients through negotiating volume commission discounts on batched transactions.

The client may pay higher commissions than those paid by DJY's clients who have not directed DJY to execute transactions through a specified broker or dealer.

In addition, the client may not receive the lowest available price with respect to certain transactions effected for the client's portfolio. In its investment advisory agreements with clients who have directed DJY to execute transactions through a Specified Broker, DJY generally requires the client to acknowledge the potential for such conflicts of interest. With full disclosure, DJY believes that no conflict of interest that is detrimental to the client will result, since through full disclosure, the clients will have the opportunity to determine what is in their best interests.

Item 12B

INVESTMENT OR BROKERAGE DISCRETION

While DJY may at times recommend brokers, the client may direct DJY in writing to use a particular broker or dealer to execute transactions for the client's portfolio, of which the client will negotiate terms and arrangements with that broker or dealer. DJY will not seek better execution services or prices from other brokers or dealers and as a result, client could pay higher commissions, other transaction costs, greater spreads, or receive less favorable net prices on transactions for the client's portfolio than would otherwise be the case.

Item 13A

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

DJY clients use RJFS for all or substantially all of their brokerage transactions. In addition to brokerage services, RJFS provides DJY's clients with valuable custodial, and recordkeeping. DJY may have the opportunity to receive traditional "non-cash benefits" from RJFS such as customized statements; receipt of duplicate client confirmations and bundled duplicate statements; access to a trading desk servicing RJFS Advisors exclusively; access to block trading which provides the ability to aggregate securities transactions and then allocate the appropriate shares to client portfolios; ability to have investment advisory fees deducted directly from client portfolios; access to an electronic communication network for client order entry and portfolio information; access to mutual funds which generally require significantly high minimum initial investments or those that are otherwise only generally available to institutional investors; reporting features; receipt of industry communications; and perhaps discounts on business-related products. RJFS may also provide general access to research and perhaps discounts on research products. Any research received is used for the benefit of all clients.

Periodically, DJY reviews its brokerage relationship with RJFS to ensure that it is fulfilling its fiduciary duty to seek best execution on client transactions. Since DJY provides asset allocation services to advisory clients, the rebalancing of clients' investment portfolios occurs on a regular basis. Because of such rebalancing, DJY clients may execute odd lot transactions, which could generate higher transaction fees.

DJY has no written or verbal arrangements whereby it receives soft dollars. While DJY endeavors at all times to put the interest of the clients first as part of its fiduciary duty, clients should be aware that the receipt of any additional compensation itself creates a conflict of interest, and may affect the judgment of these individuals when making recommendations.

Item 13B

ADDITIONAL COMPENSATION

DJY may enter into written arrangements to pay cash referral fees to individuals or companies (Solicitors) who recommend prospective clients to DJY. In these cases, there will be a written agreement between DJY and the Solicitor, which clearly defines the duties and responsibilities of the solicitor under this arrangement. In addition, each Solicitor is required to provide a written disclosure document, which explains to the prospective client the terms under which the Solicitor is working with
