Nicole McAuliffe is a native of Fort Collins, CO and has joined the Chapel & Collins team as an intern. She is currently attending Colorado State University in pursuit of her Bachelor's degree in finance and management. She appreciates the knowledge and experience she's gaining from the advisors in the firm.

Nicole is a girls basketball coach at Fort Collins High School, and loves being able to give back to her former high school. In her spare time away from work and coaching, Nicole is an avid sports fan and enjoys watching any sporting event, especially college basketball. She also loves spending time with her family and friends in the beautiful Fort Collins area.

Another good reason to enjoy a glass of wine tonight! Diet may help prevent Alzheimer's. MIND diet rich in vegetables, berries, whole grains, nuts: Newly published research suggests that a specific diet called the MIND diet may reduce the incidence of brain disease that increases a person's risk in developing Alzheimer's disease.
