

CHRIS LEEPER ACHIEVES MEMBERSHIP IN RAYMOND JAMES & ASSOCIATES 2016 CHAIRMAN'S COUNCIL

JACKSONVILLE, Florida – Chris Leeper, CFP®, Senior Vice President, Investments

Chris Leeper is a financial advisor with Meinrod & Leeper Wealth Management of Raymond James. Chris has been named to the firm's 2016 Chairman's Council in recognition of outstanding client service and exemplary professional growth, according to Thomas A. James, chairman of Raymond James. Over his 20+ year career in the financial services industry Chris has held positions with Robert W. Baird & Company, Inc. and Merrill Lynch. He joined Raymond James in 2005. He was recognized in On Wall Street magazine as a Top Advisor under 40 in 2007.* Chris and his business partner, Adam Meinrod, CFP®, manage more than $450 million in assets. Their office is located at 9822 Tapestry Park Circle, Suite 202, Jacksonville, Florida.

Chairman's Council membership is a privilege limited to a select few. The honor is awarded only to those financial advisors who have demonstrated the utmost in commitment to the precepts that define Raymond James – among these a focus on putting clients' needs first and dedication to leadership and integrity.

INTEGRITY

Chris has built his financial advisory practice on the principles of honesty, trust and mutual understanding. His firm belief that each client is unique and deserving of customized, objective solutions to his or her financial needs is what distinguishes him as one of Raymond James' top financial advisors. Chris and business partner Adam Meinrod, CFP®, specialize in helping pre-retirees and retirees plan for independent futures and mitigate common financial missteps.

LEADERSHIP

It was a drive to help people that first sparked Chris' interest in the financial services industry. This drive is evident in the unique, comprehensive financial plans he creates for each client. He constantly seeks ways to enhance the level of service he provides to his clients – a philosophy backed by a nationally recognized firm that shares his commitment to progress and innovation through cutting-edge technology and one of the industry's most highly regarded equity research teams.

COMMITMENT TO CLIENTS

Along with a wealth of resources, Chris leverages the client-centered culture that distinguishes Raymond James from other firms. Chris utilizes a customized investment approach that manages the portfolio risk first and growth second. He very simply does not like to lose money. Chris believes his clients appreciate having a trusted advocate who truly cares about their well-being.

A DISTINGUISHED LEADER

Chris, a CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™ professional, is a testament to Raymond James' longstanding tradition of integrity, leadership and client commitment. Originally from North Carolina, Chris, along with his wife, Aly, and their three daughters, now calls Jacksonville, Florida, home. He and his wife, Aly, support foundations including Young Life, UF Health Jacksonville and the Leukemia Lymphoma Society. Chris enjoys wine, traveling and playing the guitar.

Membership in the Chairman's Council is based mainly on assets under management, education, credentials and fiscal year production. Re-qualification is required annually. Prior membership is no assurance of future membership.

On Wall Street's* Top 40 Advisors under 40 were determined by their assets under management, services offered, revenue generated and compliance records, among other factors. Past performance is not indicative of future results. Individual experiences may vary.
