AMBER K. SEALE

PALM BEACH (November 30) – Amber K. Seale, Senior Vice President, Investments, attended the annual Barron's Top Women Advisors Summit, hosted by Barron's magazine to promote best practices in the industry and the value of advice to the investing public. The invitation-only conference was held at The Breakers, November

30 – December 2, in Palm Beach, Florida.

Seale was one of approximately 500 financial advisors selected by their firms to attend and participate in the conference. Other attendees included a number of advisors ranked among Barron's Top 100 Women Financial Advisors, published June 4, 2016. This annual ranking is based on the volume of assets overseen by the advisors and their teams, revenue generated for the firms and the quality of the advisors' practices. The top 100 comprises advisors from major securities firms and independent operations.

"It was an honor to meet with these women, and I was delighted to have the opportunity to network with peers and discuss ideas and best practices with some of the top-ranked financial advisors in the country" Seale said. "It was a privilege to work with this group."

This exclusive conference is designed to promote best practices and generate new ideas across the industry. Attendees conducted workshops led by the Top 100 Financial Advisors that explored current issues from business development ideas and managing high-net-worth accounts and families to portfolio management and retirement planning.

"Because the summit brings together key leaders and top decision makers from around the country, it is recognized by the financial advisor community as one of the industry's leading event," said Ed Finn, editor and president of Barron's. "The ideas and discussions generated here equip attendees to provide some good investment and financial advice to their clients, which are vital given the challenging economic and market conditions of today."

Participating firms included: Ameriprise Financial Services, Bank of America-Merrill Lynch, Edward Jones, Janney Montgomery Scott, LPL Financial, Morgan Stanley, Raymond James Financial, Robert W. Baird & Co., Stifel, UBS Financial Services and Wells Fargo Advisors.
