Financial companies choose how they share your personal information. Federal law gives consumers the right to limit some but not all sharing. Federal law also requires us to tell you how we collect, share, and protect your personal information. Please read this notice carefully to understand what we do.

The types of personal information we collect and share depend on the product or service you have with us. This information can include:

- Social Security number and income
- Credit history and credit score
- Account balances and transaction history
- Assets and investment experience

When you are no longer our customer, we continue to share your information as described in this notice.

All financial companies need to share customers’ personal information to run their everyday business. In the section below, we list the reasons financial companies can share their customers’ personal information; the reasons Raymond James chooses to share; and whether you can limit this sharing. Please note that Raymond James does not “sell” your personal information, with “sell” meaning the disclosure of personal information to a third party for monetary or other valuable consideration.

Who we are

Who is providing this notice?
See the Raymond James U.S. legal entities noted below.

What we do

How does Raymond James protect my personal information?
To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. For more information, please visit www.raymondjames.com/privacy-security-and-account-protection/how-raymond-james-protects-your-privacy.

How does Raymond James collect my personal information?
We collect your personal information, for example, when you
- open an account or perform transactions
- apply for a loan
- make a wire transfer or tell us where to send money
- tell us about your investment or retirement portfolio
- become a beneficiary of a trust or an estate

We also collect your personal information from others such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can’t I limit all sharing?
Federal law gives you the right to limit only
- sharing for affiliates’ everyday business purposes – information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing. See below for more on your rights under state law.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?
Your choices will apply to everyone on your account.

Definitions

Affiliates
Companies related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- Our affiliates include companies with a Raymond James or Carillon name as well as financial companies such as Eagle Asset Management, Inc., Scout Investments, Inc., and The Producers Choice, LLC.

Nonaffiliates
Companies not related by common ownership or control. They can be financial and nonfinancial companies.
- Raymond James does not share with nonaffiliates so they can market to you.

Joint marketing
A formal agreement between nonaffiliated financial companies to provide or market financial products or services to you.
- Our joint marketing partners may include banks and credit unions.

Other important information

* Please note that Raymond James Bank, N.A. and Raymond James Trust, N.A. (when serving in a fiduciary capacity) do not share information with other financial companies for purposes of joint marketing. Additionally, Raymond James Trust, N.A. when serving in a fiduciary capacity does not share information for affiliates’ business purposes.

Financial advisors may change brokerage and/or investment advisory firms, and the nonpublic personal information collected by us and your advisor may be provided to the new firm, so your advisor can continue to service your account(s). If you do not want your financial advisor to provide this information to the new firm, please call 800.647.7378 to opt out of this sharing. Opt-in states, such as California and Vermont and others, require your affirmative consent before the advisor can provide your nonpublic information to the new firm. You can provide or withdraw this consent at any time by contacting 800.647.7378. If your financial advisor is also affiliated with a bank, credit union, or other financial institution, and that financial institution enters into a relationship with a new financial services provider, we may share your information with the new financial services provider so your advisor can continue to service your account(s).
Vermont: In accordance with Vermont law, we will not disclose information about your creditworthiness to our affiliates and will not disclose your personal information, financial information, credit report, or health information to nonaffiliated third parties to market to you, other than as permitted by Vermont law, unless you authorize us to make those disclosures. Additional information concerning our privacy policies can be found at raymondjames.com or call 800.647.7378.

California: In accordance with California law, we will not share information we collect about you with companies outside of Raymond James, unless the law allows. For example, we may share your personal information, to consent to your service accounts, or to provide rewards or benefits you are entitled to. We will limit sharing among our companies to the extent required by California law. For additional information regarding your rights, please see the California Privacy Notice (raymondjames.com/ccpa).

Nevada: In accordance with Nevada law, if you would like to be placed on our Internal Do Not Call List, please call 800.647.7378. For more information, you may contact ClientService@Raymond.James.com or Raymond James Client Services, 880 Carillon Parkway, St. Petersburg, FL 33716, or the Bureau of Consumer Protection, Office of the Nevada Attorney General, 555 E. Washington St., Suite 3900, Las Vegas, NV 89101. Phone number: 702.486.3132; email: BCPINFO@ag.state.nv.us.

For Insurance Customers in AZ, CA, CT, GA, IL, ME, MA, MN, MT, NV, NJ, NC, OH, OR, and VA only. The term “Information” in this section means customer information obtained in an insurance transaction. We may give your Information to state insurance officials, law enforcement, group policy holders about claims experience, or auditors as the law allows or requires. We may provide your Information to insurance support companies that may retain it or send it to others as needed to service your account. We may share your medical Information so we can learn if you qualify for coverage, process claims, or prevent fraud or if you provide authorization. To see your Information, write to Raymond James Insurance Group, 880 Carillon Parkway, St. Petersburg, FL 33716, Attn: Data Request. You must state your full name, address, the insurance company, policy number (if relevant), and the Information you are requesting. We will inform you of what Information we have. You may see and copy the Information (unless privileged) at our office or ask that we mail a copy to you for a fee. If you think any Information is incorrect, you may submit a written request to have the Information corrected. We will notify you of what actions are taken. If you do not agree with our actions, you may send us a statement.

If Raymond James acts as a clearing agent for your accounts opened through an unaffiliated introducing broker-dealer (Custody & Clearing Division, or CCD) or if Raymond James provides custody and execution services to your third-party investment adviser (Investment Advisors Division, or IAD), you should also receive a separate privacy notice from your introducing broker-dealer or third-party investment adviser that governs information you share with them. Raymond James shall have no responsibility or liability with respect to such separate privacy notices.
