Filling up at the gas pump is about to get even cheaper: San Francisco (MarketWatch) - Fill'er up! The good times at the gas pump will continue to roll. Read more

U.S. drivers paid the least for a gallon of gas in four years, and retail gasoline prices are likely to fall by another 15 cents to 20 cents nationwide by New Year's Day, travel and leisure company AAA says Wednesday.

Best Gift Cards to Give for the Holidays: Gift cards often are considered fall-back gifts, what you buy when you don't know what else to get someone or don't have time to come up with something more creative. You don't need to feel guilty about giving people gift cards this holiday season, though, because they probably want them. Read more

5 Tax Breaks if Your 'Personal Economy' is Weak: You've probably seen those commercials about planning for your personal economy, as opposed to the general economy. The concept makes sense. For example, many folks have not yet received any noticeable uptick from the slowly (very slowly in some places) improving general economy. Read more
